

STANDING ORDER NO. 269 /2016

'POLICE MITRA'

1. Introduction

Policing as an institution has emerged today as a very important service delivery stake holder in the society. Various dimensions on day-to-day policing revolve around critical needs of citizens. Citizens are very important stake holder. In order to make the ground level policing more effective, the assistance and cooperation of citizens is very necessary. 'Police Mitra' is an initiative to involve members of civil society in prevention of crime, maintenance of law and order and for better communication with citizens as a whole.

Section 17 of Delhi Police Act, inter alia, provides that:-

- (i) The Commissioner of Police, may, at any time, by a written order, signed by himself and sealed with his own seal, appoint any able bodied male person not less than 18 years of age, whom he considers fit to be a Special Police Officer to assist the Delhi Police on any occasion, when he/she has reason to apprehend the occurrence of any riot or grave disturbance of peace in any area and he is of the opinion that the ordinary police force is not sufficient for the protection of persons residing and for the security of property within such area.
- (ii) The Commissioner of Police shall publish the names of Special Police Officers appointed under this section in such manner as may be prescribed.

2. Eligibility Conditions for Police Mitra

In exercise of powers conferred by section 8(2) of Delhi Police Act, the Commissioner of Police has authorized all the District DCsP, Addl. DCsP and DCsP Crime, Railways and IGI Airport to appoint Special Police Officers who will now be called 'Police Mitra' from amongst able bodied persons of the neighbourhood not below 18 years of age and having good reputation to assist police in prevention of crime and maintaining law and order in the Capital as per provisions contained in section 17 of Delhi Police Act read with Rule 31 of Delhi Police (Appointment & Recruitment) Rules, 1980 and order No. 1246-81/Spl.Cell/PHQ dated 10.9.85. Copy enclosed at Annexure-I.

3. Procedure for appointment of Police Mitra

It is emphasized upon all District DCsP that while appointing 'Police Mitra' special care should be taken to ensure that they do not have any criminal record/background and have not come to adverse notice for any anti-social or communal activity. To ensure this, all persons who offer themselves for appointment as 'Police Mitra' should first be asked to fill the proforma enclosed at Annexure-II with requisite verification report obtained, approval of ACP sought and the list of aspirants for this assignment prepared. The verification shall not be got done directly from the applicant, but the same shall be got done by the persons living in/around the residence/working address provided by the applicant. A discreet enquiry shall also be got done from the Special Branch after initial verification of the applicant by the local police.

4. Method of appointment

In continuation of Circular Order No.6893-7100/XXIX/39/Spl./C&T, AC-V dated 30.01.89 and No.17283-483/C&T, AC-I dated 14.03.89, each district should make efforts to enroll "Police Mitra" as SPOs from amongst the members of the public as possible.

Every 'Police Mitra' so appointed shall, on appointment:-

- (i) Receive a certificate of appointment in such form as may be specified by the Administrator in this behalf.
- (ii) Have the same powers, privileges and immunities and perform the same duties as envisaged in section 43 of Cr.P.C.
- (iii) Receive an identity card issued from CIMS (P&L), Delhi Police.

It should be kept in mind while considering cases of appointment of 'Police Mitra' that those persons residing in the area where such appointments are made should be given preference, as mentioned in section 17 of Delhi Police Act, 1978. The duration of appointment of 'Police Mitra' should be for three years. One third of the 'Police Mitra' should be replaced every year and none shall be repeated after three years. It may also be kept in mind while enrolling 'Police Mitra' that people with any vested or political interest do not get appointed.

5. Role and Functions of Police Mitra

The role and functions of each 'Police Mitra' will be as per Annexure-III. The services of 'Police Mitra' have been found very useful in the prevention and detection of crime, in juvenile aid, self defence camps for girls, night patrolling, promoting communal harmony etc. They have also made significant contributions in maintaining peace in their respective areas and building bridges between the police and the citizens. Their assistance to the police in raids and in organizing de-addiction camps is very useful in saving human lives and maintaining law and order. As such, services of 'Police Mitra' should be welcomed in any area of Delhi.

Some of the 'Police Mitra' would have a high sense of motivation and involvement. Such 'Police Mitra' should be utilized to a greater degree in prevention of crime and those who perform well in a year should be adequately recognized and given awards. For this all 'Police Mitra' should be asked to submit a monthly report to the concerned SHOs/SDPOs on the proforma. These reports should be examined after every three months in a calendar year viz January, April, July and October. Meetings with 'Police Mitra' may be held regularly and in an institutionalized manner rather than calling them only on special occasions.

6. Procedure for sorting out Objections:

Any person objecting to the appointment of any person as a 'Police Mitra' may send his/her reasons for such objection to the Commissioner of Police within fifteen days of such appointment and the Commissioner / Spl. CP-L&O/Joint CP-Range may accept such objection and cancel the appointment of such officer after giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard.

7. Periodical review of appointments:

The ACsP should submit a report after six months about the suitability of continuance of the 'Police Mitra' on the basis of their performance to the DCP and offer comments on the claims made by the 'Police Mitra' attaching the original monthly reports. Similarly the 'Police Mitra' taking keen interest and doing some useful and outstanding work can be rated as outstanding and the District DCsP will have the final discretion to recommend them for commendation certificates, for the post of senior 'Police Mitra' (District level) and also to elect the best 'Police Mitra' of the Districts.

8. Supersession

This Standing Order will supersede Standing Order No. 269/89 issued vide No. XXIX/185/89/61251-509/C&T(AC-I)/PHQ dated 27.11.1989

ANNEXURE-III

The Charter of duties and powers of 'Police Mitra' as approved by the Commissioner of Police, Delhi are reproduced below for information and necessary action:-

1. The 'Police Mitra' of the area will be in touch with the concerned SHO and ACP meet with them periodically and share their views.
2. The 'Police Mitra' should make himself acquainted with the respectables of the locality. He shall keep in touch with them and project their view points about the problems of the area.
3. He should have first-hand knowledge about the criminals of the area by their photographs and their brief history so that he may take prompt action in case they are involved in any criminal activity in that locality. He shall report the activities of the criminals residing in his area to the SHO.
4. The 'Police Mitra' will be briefed about the heinous offences like robbery, dacoity, snatching, communal riots etc., which have taken place within the previous one year in that area.
5. 'Police Mitra' should help the police in organizing self-defence camps for girls as a measures to check eve-teasing.
6. The 'Police Mitra' should keep an eye for habitual eve-teasers in the area and report any such activity to the area police.
7. As and when a property crime like dacoity, robbery, burglary, house theft etc. occurs in an area, the SHO should nominate a 'Police Mitra' of the area to visit the house of the victim, study the existing home security measures and advise the victim family on measures to be adopted to prevent recurrence of the crime e.g. magic eye, chain lock, locking systems, window grills, car etching, marking of valuable movable property, not opening doors to strangers, servant verification etc.
8. The 'Police Mitra' will organize a 'Security Mela' periodically in the area by mobilizing the area residents and help the police in popularizing crime prevention devices among the residents.
9. Once a year, after schools re-open, the SHO should constitute a team of 3-4 'Police Mitra' who should visit all high schools of the area and collect information of drop-outs, drug addicts and juvenile delinquents from the school authorities. This list should then be verified by the police and the local boys who have taken to crime or drugs should be rehabilitated by the 'Police Mitra' and if that is not possible their activity should be watched by the Police Mitra /local police.

10. The 'Police Mitra' should periodically organize meetings in schools and colleges for senior police officers to visit and interact with the students.
11. The 'Police Mitra' is duty bound to inform the SHO and ACP concerned, in case he notices any gathering of anti-social elements, pick-pockets, illicit distillers, gambling den, prostitution etc. or movement of persons at odd hours in suspicious circumstances in the area.
12. The 'Police Mitra' being resident of that area, should inform the SHO about the persons who are keeping illegal fire arms, country made bombs, explosives or other lethal weapons, so that prompt house search can be done and articles seized.
13. The 'Police Mitra' should keep strict watch over the activities of anti-social elements/persons who are indulging in anti-national or terrorist activities and in case he comes to know that such type of people have gathered at particular place he should immediately inform the SHO and ACP concerned for prompt action. In case of any difficulty the 'Police Mitra' shall contact the concerned District DCsP.
14. The 'Police Mitra' may also keep an eye on the guest houses, boarding houses or other houses/bungalows which are being used for such purposes without valid license and on suspicion, he should inform the DCP concerned for prompt legal action.
15. The 'Police Mitra' of the area shall be in touch with the concerned SHO and ACP and shall meet them periodically to share his views.
16. The 'Police Mitra' shall perform all specific duties assigned to him by SHO of the concerned police station of his superior officers.
17. The 'Police Mitra' will help the police to mobilize volunteers for night patrolling in the colony and 'Thikri Pehra' in outer areas.
18. The 'Police Mitra' shall be in close liaison with the local Resident Welfare Associations and report any new arrivals in the form of tenants/landlords.
19. The 'Police Mitra' should be briefed to increase community spirit amongst the various communities to avoid communal tensions.
20. In the event of any communal incident in the area, the 'Police Mitra' will extend full cooperation to the area police in restoring communal harmony and peace in the area.
21. As and when a heinous offence occurs in an area, it will be the duty of the SHO to nominate a 'Police Mitra' residing in the vicinity to interact with the victim or the family of the victim. It will be the duty of the 'Police Mitra' to visit the victim's house as frequently as possible, after the occurrence of crime. As the victim/family of the victim are in a state of utter shock during the first 15-20 days period, the 'Police Mitra' should be told to handle them with a great deal of sympathy, kindness and consideration. He should not only console them but help them to the extent possible in regard to their problems and also convey to the police any information or views that they might have in respect of the case. The SHO and I.O. should accompany the 'Police Mitra' at least once in order to reassure the victims that effective police action is being taken and to also render any help that is possible. In fact, in highly sensational cases like dacoity, robbery with murder etc. even the ACP should visit the victims in order to reassure and console them. The 'Police Mitra' should visit victim's house by himself and thereafter submit a brief written report the SHO, with copies to the ACP and DCP concerned informing them about the visit and problems, if any, articulated by the victims.
