GUIDELINES FOR PUNJAB CINEMAS (REGULATION) ACT -1952, EXTENDED TO DELHI -ENFORCEMENT OF

CONTENTS:

1. Re-sale of Cinema tickets on profit, for admission to a cinematograph is a cognizable offence u/s 7C (ii) Punjab Cinemas Regulation Act, 1952 as extended to the Union Territory of Delhi. Some organised gangs indulge in this crime in collusion with dishonest elements of cinema managements.
2. In order to check this menace in the Union Territory of Delhi the following steps shall be taken:-
 - (i) Special arrangements should be made at or near such cinema houses, which are well-known for such crime. Such arrangements should particularly be made at cinema houses exhibiting new and popular films, during the first 2 weeks.
 - (ii) ACsP/SHOs should remain in close touch with the cinema authorities and warn them that in the event of connivance of management or their employees, strict legal action will be taken and licenses cancelled. Surprise checks should be conducted by Vigilance Branch and Licensing Branch to find out management/police connivance.
 - (iii) In each police station, a register should be maintained In which cases u/s 7C (ii) PCR Act, filed in courts, shall be entered and the result of each case indicated.
 - (iv) Another register to be called the Conviction Register shall be maintained at each police station. In this register names and other particulars of persons, residents of the police station, whether convicted in the case of parent police, station or any other police station shall be entered alphabetically with order of conviction and sentence awarded. Information regarding conviction of person(s) resident(s) of other- police stations of Delhi/New Delhi shall be communicated to the SHO concerned under proper entry in the register.

- (v) Before forwarding a complaint' u/s 7/C (ii) PCR ACT, every SHO shall personally check up the, Conviction Register. If the offender is a previous convict, the SHO concerned shall give Q note to this effect in red ink on the complaint and make special request (confidentially through a separate communication) to the prosecuting agency to press for heavy fines to stop functioning of such racket.
3. District DCsP will take up such cases with Commissioner, GST Department Delhi and DCP/Licensing Branch against managements indulging in black-marketing of cinema tickets for appropriate action under intimation to Police Hdqrs.
