

STANDING ORDER NO. 349 / 2008

INVESTIGATION/ENQUIRES ON COMPLAINTS RECEIVED FROM NRIS/PIOS

This Standing Order attempts to lay down the guidelines for redressal of grievances of NRIs/PIOs caused them by unscrupulous people.

The Ministry of Overseas Indian Affairs, Govt. of India has emphasized on the need for attending to the complaints received from NRIs/PIOs for redressal of their grievances. They have requested that there should be a quick and satisfactory response to the complainant by functionaries of various States/Government Departments. It has been reported that a number of complainants of land grabbing, illegal possession of immovable property belonging to NRIs & PIOs by unscrupulous people are made from time to time which need to be enquired/investigate at appropriate levels for legal redressal. There are also complaints related to desertion of Indian women by their overseas Indian spouses, child abduction, child custody etc., which also require a sympathetic and prompt response by the police.

A "NRI/PIO Grievance Redressal Cell" has been set up under the Vigilance Branch of Delhi Police and has been entrusted with the responsibility of immediate attention, investigation and possible assistance by the District Police. In the case of complainants received directly by Distt. /Units copies should be sent to this Cell to facilitate maintenance of record and monitoring of action taken. This cell shall monitor all such complaints received from the ministry of directly from NRIs/PIOs.

This Standing Order has been issued vide power vested under section 19 of the Delhi Police Act-1978.
