

STANDING ORDER NO. L&O/39/2024

PREVENTION OF VANDALISM AND ENCROACHMENT AT ARCHAEOLOGICAL MONUMENTS/SITES/REMAINS, ETC.

The Government of India is receiving reports about vandalism (destruction of monuments) and encroachments at archaeological monuments and sites of national importance all over India. Ancient monuments in Delhi have got historical importance and every care should be taken to protect the monuments against destruction, encroachment or removal, etc. These monuments of historical nature are targeted in a number of ways, including acts of mischief by visitors who deface the property by writing their names, etc. or damage the sites or from professional criminals who steal valuable idols or other items of high historical and architectural value.

The Archeological Survey of India had declared 174 monuments as centrally protected monuments in NCT of Delhi the Last of the monuments is at Annexure 'A'.

1. In order to prevent vandalism and encroachments at monuments and archaeological sites and remains, the Central Government has enacted the "Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act of 1958 (No. 24 of 1958) with Ancient Monuments and Archeological Sites and Remains Rules, 1959 amended in 1991 in supersession of the ancient and historical monuments and archaeological sites and remains, Declaration of National Importance Act 71 of 1951, section 126 of the Site Re- organization Act 37 of 1956 and the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act of 1904.
2. According to section 30 of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act of 1958 quoted below, certain sections have been made penal which should be understood clearly and explained to the subordinate staff:
"30 Penalises (1) whoever:
 - (i) Destroys, removes, injures, alerts, defaces, imperils or misuses a protected monument, or ii.

- (ii) Being the owner or occupier of a protected monuments contravenes an order made under subsection (1) of section 9 or under subsection (i) of section 10, or

3. Any person who moves any antiquity in contravention of a notification issued under subsection (1) of section 25 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, and the court convicting a person of any such contravention may order/direct to restore the antiquity to the place from which it was moved.
 4. According to the provisions of section 32 of the said Act, an offence under clause (i) or clause (iii) of subsection (1) of section 30, cited above, shall be deemed to be cognizable offence within the meaning of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
 5. All other offences under the said Act are non cognizable and bailable. Such cases should be investigated after taking the permission of the Magistrate.
 6. The encroachment of archaeological monuments amounts to criminal trespass punishable u/s 329 (3) BNS. It is cognizable and bailable.
 7. Whenever information in respect of such offences is received, legal action should be taken in the case. Preventive action may also be taken u/s 100 D.P. Act to keep the monuments/historical places free from any encroachments.

Besides the above, the Municipal Corporation of Delhi had also published a list of heritage sites, including heritage buildings, heritage precincts and natural features falling in the jurisdiction of MCD in the jurisdiction of MCD in the newspaper of 3rd and 4th June 2001 as public notice. Although the sites circulated have not been notified but the Heritage Conservation Committee had recommended for the notification of the sites. The list of the Heritage sites to be notified is at Annexure 'B'.

For the preservation of the ancient and historical monuments and archeological Sites, an Act was passed by the Legislative Assembly of NCT, Delhi in 2004, which was notified as Delhi Ancient and Historical Monuments and Archeological Sites and Remains Act, Act No. 9 of 2005.

In both Acts, i.e. The Ancient Monuments and Archeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958, and Delhi Ancient and Historical Monuments and Archeological sites and remains act 2005, the area around the monuments to be protected have been defined in two categories.

- (i) Protected Area:-Construction, mining, quarrying, excavating, blasting or any operation of likewise nature is not permitted. Sign boards of sufficiently large size should be installed in all directions at conspicuous place of protected area with logo of protected monuments should be properly visible.
- (ii) Regulated Area:- Construction, mining, excavation activities can be undertaken only after getting permission from the Govt. or the concerned department. Sign board sufficiently large size should be installed in all directions at conspicuous place of regulated area with logo of protected monument.
- (iii) According to the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains (Present and Validation) Ordinance, 2010, an Expert Advisory Committee constituted by the Central Government shall recommend the extent of the prohibited and regulated areas around a protected monument. However, till such time as the above mentioned committee is notified, the prohibited area for centrally protected monuments shall continue to be up to 100 meters from the monument. Likewise the regulated area shall extend up to 300 meters from the monument.

As per Delhi Ancient and Historical Monuments and Archeological Sites and Remains Act, 2005, the prohibited area around the monument is 50 meters and restricted area is 100 meters.

ROLE OF LOCAL POLICE:-

- 1. Two registers shall be maintained in each police station for centrally protected monuments and heritage sites/buildings declared by MCD separately.
- 2. Photo of each monument shall be kept in this register.
- 3. Details regarding its historical importance, threat perception depending upon the number of visitors, important days, important functions, existing security arrangements shall be maintained in this register.
- 4. The tourist/visitors shall be given proper protection from anti social elements as well as from touts, etc.

5. In case the number of visitors is very large, a contingency plan shall be prepared and all documents like site plan, exit and entry gates shall be kept handy.
6. The Division Officer with the help of concerned agency i.e. Archeological Survey of India or Municipal Corporation of Delhi will demarcate the limitation/boundaries of prohibited and regulated area of each monument and maintain in the register.
7. The Division Officer, Beat head constables and Beat constables will keep a sharp watch on the monuments so that no construction / excavation or mining is carried out within the prohibited and regulated area of each monument without the written permission of the competent authority, ie. The Archaeological Survey of India.
8. In case of any unauthorized construction, excavation or mining activity is noticed in the specified area or information is received from any quarter, the staff shall stop the same and take action as per law.
9. The concerned agency shall invariably be informed about the proposed security measures to be taken and activities in and around the monument. The concerned agency shall also be encouraged to deploy adequate security guards through professional and licensed security agency & to install adequate No. of CCTV cameras.
10. Regular meetings shall be held at the SHO level with the concerned authorities and the security arrangements shall be reviewed from time to time.
11. The beat staff will render all help to the ground staff at the protected sites in preserving the monuments and sites.
12. On receipt of any complaint from the concerned authorities, about any vandalism, encroachment or any other illegal activity, prompt legal action will be initiated by the concerned SHO under intimation to the concerned ACP and DCP.
13. Concerned SHO Shall deploy one MPV round the clock at each of the three world heritage monuments i.e. Red Fort, Qutub Minar, Humayun Ka Makbara with adequate staff. He shall ensure that the staff so deployed is smart in turn-out and having good communication skill as well as having proficiency in Hindi and English language. The women staff may also be deployed at each of the above mentioned world heritage monuments.
14. Concerned SHO shall ensure adequate surveillance & patrolling around all the Historical Monuments & Archeological sites to prevent any illegal/criminal activities especially after closing hours. Regular briefings of care takers & security guards of the monuments shall be conducted by the concerned Beat/Division officers regarding safety and security as well as regarding prevention of any unauthorized entry in the premises.
