

STANDING ORDER NO. L&O/57/2022

DUTIES OF BEAT OFFICERS

INTRODUCTION

The Beat Officer is directly responsible for prevention and detection of crime and maintenance of law and order within his beat. He is also one of the most important links between the police and the public. The success of the police system largely depends upon discipline, devotion, intelligence and hard work of the beat officers and the amount of supervision exercised by a Division officer.

COMPOSITION OF BEAT

A beat is generally looked over by ASI (Exe), designated as the Beat Officer and assisted by Head Constable designated as Assistant Beat Officers and two constables. They are supervised by a Division Officer within the police station area.

FUNCTIONS

The beat officer is required to perform multifarious tasks, besides prevention of crime and maintenance of law and order within his respective beat. These include collection of intelligence of general nature, meeting with senior citizens, enquiries into certain types of complaints/verification reports, ensuring smooth flow of traffic, implementing community policing schemes, fostering communal harmony, etc. For this purpose, he should have a e- Beat Book containing the following information handy so that the same can be used as and when required:-

I. E-BEAT BOOK

Rule 28.17 of PPR requires maintenance of a Beat Book which is replaced with e-Beat Book. The e-Beat book has 24 icons on dashboard which in turn have sub heads wherein relevant information of beat can be stored:-

1. Beat officer can upload and update information about Senior Citizens, critical points, Vital Installations, Govt. offices, important fairs, Weekly bazaars, Arms License Holders, Dark Area, Suspected Criminals, Licensed Arms Shops, Liquor and Drug shops, People aiding Criminal, Call Centers, Important Places within Beat, Street Vendor, Tenant verification, Servant verification, School Colleges, lodging house, Shopping Malls, foreigner's verification, checking traffic violation, verify movement pass through scanners etc.
2. Beat officers can verify the details of criminals and save the data. If a criminal has changed his whereabouts/residence, beat officer can forward relevant information about him to concerned beat. Beat officer can also record location of scene of crime on Google map, work upon the request of resident for verification, upload information about wanted criminal etc.
3. Beat officer can upload photo of suspects and check involvements in dossier database. It provides access of photos of criminal having identical features. Beat officers can make search of criminal based on three options 9(III), Dossier and BC. He can verify the Jail/Bail released criminal and upload the information.
4. Beat officers can search details of stolen vehicle, missing mobile phones, BC list, ownership of e-vehicle, 112 calls report, information of picket checking location, checking scheme under category A, B, C, D etc. PCR Calls can be received and responded on e-beat book and the action taken on PCR calls can be uploaded.
5. Beat officer can register applicants for Yuva Programme through this feature, redressal of the grievances of the citizen through e-Sathi App and link provided there to divert user to Delhi Police website for Helpline Numbers.
6. All safety guidelines/measures issued from time to time can be accessed here like security measures for senior citizens, Cyber Fraud, crime against women, etc.

II. DUTIES

The success of a beat officer largely depends upon the time he spends in his beat. He should perform patrolling in the area and keep his eyes open to notice the activities in the area and report important information to his supervisory officers. He shall use the features provided in e-Beat Book while performing his duties which includes:-

1. Service of process and information sheets and incidents conducting various types of verification including tenants, property dealers, cyber cafe etc.

2. Developing information and knowledge about the incidents of crime occurring in his area, modus operandi adopted in the commission of crime, description of stolen properties, description of suspects, developing criminal intelligence, etc.
