3. FUNCTIONS - ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

I. COUNSELLING CELL

A. OBJECTIVE

The objective of Counseling Wing will be to provide a conducive platform to the parties to settle their matrimonial differences through the intervention of trained police personnel & Professional Social Workers/Counselors deployed in SPUWAC. The work of this wing in SPUWAC will be supervised by an Assistant Commissioner of Police and assisted by appropriate number of Inspectors and other subordinate officers.

B. PROCESS OF COUNSELLING

- i. When a victim/complainant approaches SPUWAC for the first time, her complaint shall be diarized immediately and a receipt of the complaint shall be given to the complainant.
- ii. The complaint shall be scrutinized by Insp. (complaint) to ascertain as to whether the allegations put in the complaint are purely related to matrimonial dispute or there are allegations of serious offences such as under section 64, 74 BNS etc.
- iii. In case, the allegations put in the complaint are mainly relating to matrimonial dispute, the Insp. (Complaint) shall hear the complainant patiently. After hearing the complainant, he/she shall record the brief facts of the complaint on a notesheet and put up the same before the ACP/Counseling without any delay.
- iv. ACP/Counseling will scrutinize the complaint and if it appears that the complainant is willing for counseling in the matter, he/she shall assign the complaint to an Enquiry Officer for initiating enquiry/counseling proceedings to be conducted in a professional manner. ACP/Counseling shall also monitor the progress of each and every complaint on weekly basis and also ensure that the counseling proceedings are finalized within the stipulated time period.
- v. On receipt of the complaint, the Enquiry Officer (EO) shall call both the parties through request letter/other mode of contact such as WhatsApp, e-mail etc. to verify the facts of the complaint. In case, the parties are residing in Delhi/NCR, at least 07 days shall be given to the parties to join the enquiry proceedings, however, in case the parties are residing outside Delhi/NCR, then at least 15 days shall be given to them to join the enquiry proceedings. Nevertheless, the period of 07/15 days may be decided by the enquiry officer as per the convenience of the parties.

- vi. The enquiry officer shall hear both the parties patiently. After hearing both the parties, efforts shall be made by the Enquiry Officer to reconcile the matter between them as per the directions issued by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in its order dated 04.08.2008 passed in Bail Application in Chander Bhan Vs State.
- vii. On conclusion of the counseling proceedings, if both the parties express their willingness to settle the disputes amicably, their joint statement (duly signed) and witnessed by witnesses of both the parties shall be recorded to this effect and the complaint shall be closed. Final decision regarding closure of complaint shall be taken by ACP/Counseling/SPUWAC after personally verifying the facts from both the parties.
- viii. If the reconciliation fails, the E.O. will refer the matter to professional Counselor for reconciliation who shall counsel both the parties to resolve the matter. In case, it appears to the professional counselor that there is no possibility of reconciliation, then both the parties will be sent for mediation to explore the possibility of amicable settlement. Once this exercise too fails then only case shall be registered.
- ix. In case, the complaint discloses allegations relating to Assault, Rape or sexual assault alongwith ingredients of matrimonial dispute, the Inspector (Complaint) will personally examine the contents of the complaint to ascertain whether there is any inordinate delay in reporting the allegations of sexual assault/harassment against in laws and if found so, then he/she will process the complaint for initiating counseling/mediation proceedings, otherwise the matter will be immediately referred to PS/CWC in SPUWAC for registration of a criminal case without any delay. In this regard, guidelines issued by the Apex Court in Lalita Kumari Vs Govt. of U.P. case shall be followed meticulously and the counseling proceedings, if initiated due to the reason mentioned above, shall be concluded within a period of 06 weeks. Further, in case allegations of sexual assault are put by the complainant against her husband/in-laws during the counseling proceedings, then the above mentioned period of 06 weeks shall commence from the date on which such allegations are brought into the notice of Enquiry Officer.

- x. The enquiry officer shall also inform both the parties about the outcome of enquiry/counseling proceedings.

C. TIME PERIOD TO COMPLETE THE ENQUIRY/COUNSELLING PROCEEDINGS

- i. The Hon'ble High Court of Delhi vide its order dated 17.05.2017 passed in CRL.M.C. 2013/2016, titled Mahesh & Ors. Vs. State of NCT of Delhi & Ors. has directed that "whenever a complaint is received before the CAW Cell, short dates should be given to explore the possibility of conciliation between the parties and the same should not extend like an endless exercise. Once an opinion is formed that any further conciliation at that stage is a fruitless exercise and if the complaint discloses commission of a cognizable offence, the complaint be referred to the police station for registration of the FIR. The exercise of exploring the possibility of a settlement before the CAW Cell be completed preferably within six months and in case more time is required if it appears that the parties are likely to settle the matter, reasons for extending the time should be recorded in the file".
- ii. In view of the above directions passed by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, it shall be endeavor of the Enquiry Officer to conclude the enquiry/counseling proceedings within a period of 03 months. In case, the Enquiry Officer needs more time to conclude the enquiry, he shall make a formal request, duly recommended by ACP concerned, to DCP/SPUWAC for extension of time period justifying the requirement of additional time. After scrutinizing the grounds, DCP/SPUWAC may grant the extension of time, which shall not be more than three (03) months. Beyond this period, the time period shall not be extended in normal circumstances. However, in case further extension is required due to extra ordinary circumstances, then a well-grounded proposal shall be submitted to the Joint Commissioner of Police/Spl. Commissioner of Police, SPUWAC who shall examine the proposal and if he finds that it is necessary in the interest of the parties, he may grant extension of time to conclude the enquiry. Enquiry Officer shall conclude his/her enquiry within the given time.

D. DESIGNATION OF ENQUIRY OFFICERS

The Enquiry Officer (EO) shall preferably be a woman officer of the rank of Inspector or Sub-Inspector or ASI in SPUWAC. In case, the E.O. is a male Police officer, he shall be accompanied by a female police officer during the enquiry proceedings. Moreover, the enquiry officer, so deputed, shall be well trained, well behaved and well equipped with the abilities of perseverance, persuasion, patience and forbearance.

II. MEDIATION DIVISION
