

STANDING ORDER NO. Traff. Mgt./01/2022

USE OF CRASH HELMETS BY MOTOR CYCLISTS/ SCOOTERISTS IN DELHI POLICE

1. The wearing of helmets is mandatory for all Motor cyclists/scooterists including the Pillion Riders in Delhi. It is only imperative that police personnel abide by the law and set an example before the citizens.
2. Delhi Police has a large number of Govt. motor cycles and scooters issued to various Units/Districts, for use by Police Officers/men on official duty. It shall be obligatory on all officers and men using two wheelers, whether on duty or otherwise, to wear helmets securely fastened. Officials using Govt. Vehicles or driving while in uniform must take note of the fact that they are being watched by general public. Violation if any noticed shall entail legal action under the provision of section 129/194D/210B M.V. Act, 1988 besides this disciplinary action against the offenders.
3. The ill practice of using red/blue colour or coloured strips or inscription displaying 'Delhi Police', 'Police' etc. on private vehicles is not permitted. All concerned using vehicles shall desist from this practice. The supervising officers while conducting periodical physical checking of the vehicles in r/o which officials getting conveyance allowance must also check this aspect and take necessary action, if such violations comes to their notice.
4. For purposes of uniformity consistent with improved visibility at night, crash helmets (ISI Standard) of yellow colour shall be used by those riding on Police motorcycles (Yellow/Black) except that helmets of white colour may be used by Traffic officers. Personnel posted in Units engaged in unobtrusive duties i.e. Special Branch /Special Cell/Security, etc. are exempted from the colour code of helmets, but shall use only ISI standard crash helmets.
5. For Govt. two wheelers (i.e. motor cycles/scooters/mopeds) crash helmets are issued to the Districts/Units concerned as a part of the motor cycle kit from Lines and its use is to be enforced by the Districts/Unit Addl. CsP/DCsP. Replacements shall be arranged at Govt. cost on condemnation due to accidents, fair wear & tear as the case may be. In case of loss, full cost shall be recovered from the officers/men concerned.

6. All officers and men purchasing their own scooters/motor cycles, while giving intimation under CCS (Conduct) Rules regarding the purchase, shall also submit a cash memo in their name, in original, of the purchase of a crash helmet of ISI standard. This fact shall be physically verified while recommending grant of conveyance allowance by the G.O. concerned.
7. Provisions of this order shall not apply to police personnel who is a Sikh, if wearing a turban. Wearing of protective headgear/helmet shall be optional for Sikh women police personnel whether rider / pillion rider (As per section 129 MV Act and 115(2) of DMVR).
