

STANDING ORDER NO. HRD/39/2026

BASIC TRAINING OF PROBATIONARY SUB-INSPECTORS (EXECUTIVE) OF DELHI POLICE

I. INTRODUCTION

A Sub-Inspector has to be professionally competent and should deal with his workplace colleagues and citizenry in a sensitive, legally and administratively correct manner so as to rise well in his service. This involves a thorough training not only in the legal side of her/his work but also in the practical side, like scientific aids and other skills in investigation, gathering of intelligence, adequate knowledge of forensic science etc. In the area of law and order, she/he should be trained in crowd control, regulation of fairs and festivals, meetings and processions. She/he should also be trained to have necessary understanding of causes that result in communal, agrarian, labour, student and other areas of conflict. She/he is required not only to be prompt and effective in action, but discrete and tactful, considerate and compassionate. She/he should have faith in the preventive aspects of police work as well as the criminal justice system and be able to stand up to its exacting procedures.

Nyaya Sanhita i.e. Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) and Bhartiya Sakshya Adhiniyam (BSA) have been incorporated in the syllabus. Though IPC, CrPC & IE Act have been replaced with the New Criminal Laws, their relevant provisions will be discussed by the faculty along with Nyaya Sanhita for working knowledge of trainees/dealing with previously registered cases.

II. OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of training programme are as follows:-

- a) Impart knowledge of criminal laws, police practical work, modern methods of investigation as well as basics of computer;
- b) Development of appropriate attitude towards work & society;
- c) Development of overall personality to take greater responsibilities;
- d) Equipping with technical and professional skills;
- e) Improve physical strength and endurance.

III. DURATION

The duration of the course for directly recruited Sub-Inspectors of Executive Cadre shall be of 02 years.

The entire training of Probationary Sub-Inspectors of Delhi Police shall be imparted in the form of an integrated course of three semesters as follows:-

Semester	Duration	Place	Training Activity
Semester- I	06 Months	DPA	Basic Indoor & Outdoor training, Mid-term examination & Break
Semester - II	06 Months	DPA	Basic Indoor & Outdoor training, Final Examination, Basic Commando & Bomb Disposal Training, Preparation of P.O.P.
Semester-III	12 Months	Field Training in Districts	Field Training i.e. A, B, C & D Course

However, the schedule is subject to change/modification in case of an emergency/contingent condition/requirement by the Director/Joint Director/DPA.

While the Director/Joint Director, Delhi Police Academy would be the overall in-charge of the training being imparted at the Delhi Police Academy, the DCP of the district to which the trainee is attached, would be the in-charge of the field training (A, B, C & D Courses). The Addl. DCsP of Districts shall be the Nodal Officer for effective monitoring of the field training.

IV. JOINING PERIOD

All trainees of a batch will join the training on the same day. However, maximum relaxation of 03 working days can be given in exceptional cases by Director/Joint Director, Delhi Police Academy. Relaxation of 10 days can be given with the approval of Special Commissioner of Police, Training.

V. TRAINING NEEDS

The National Police Commission assessed the training needs of a Sub-Inspector in the Civil Police. It was stated that the Sub-Inspector of police occupies the most important functional area in the police hierarchy. The law vests in her/ him enormous powers like powers of arrest without warrant, release on bond or bail, search and seizure, carrying out inquests and summoning witnesses. In law and order situations, she/he has powers whose impact on the citizens' fundamental and other rights is far reaching. She/he combines in himself the preventive, detective and regulatory control functions of law enforcement; investigates cases & enquires into the complaints. She/he is the key person in police administration at the cutting edge. She/he comes in continuous contact with the public and occupies the first level of supervision and leadership in the set up, over the Constables and Head Constables, who are most visible to the public eye. Much depends upon her/his capacity to get the active cooperation and assistance of the staff under her/his control and professional competence.

VIII. GUIDANCE AND PROGRESS OF INDIVIDUAL TRAINEES

For effective supervision, the trainees shall be sub-divided amongst Inspectors to be designated as "Course Guide" who shall be responsible for providing in-depth personal guidance to each trainee and the continuous supervision of progress in work, discipline and all-round conduct. A weekly interactive session will be conducted by the Course Guides to monitor the progress of the trainees. An assessment of each trainee shall be done by the CLI with the help of Course Guide to ensure improvement in professional skills and Assistant Director will ensure that the trainees are fully and comprehensively trained in all aspects.

IX. ATTENDANCE AND LEAVE

- i. A total of 90% attendance in Outdoor/Indoor periods is compulsory failing which she/he will be debarred from appearing in the examination. Trainees having 75% or more but less than 90% attendance will be allowed to appear in the examination after undergoing extra classes for two months. However, trainees having less than 75% attendance will be re-batched and will be directed to proceed on leave without pay with the directions to join training from the beginning with the next scheduled batch. A trainee will be re-batched only twice; no further opportunity will be given. Attendance of a trainee will be counted from the date of joining of training. However, those who join late, their syllabus will be covered by conducting extra classes.
- ii. No leave should be granted during training period and only under exceptional circumstances, it may be sanctioned with prior approval of Deputy Director.

X. DISCIPLINE

During basic training at Delhi Police Academy, the trainees shall be deemed to be under the administrative control of Director/Joint Director for all intent and purposes.

During Field Training of PSIs, in the districts, the concerned DCP would be the controlling/disciplinary authority.

XI. EXAMINATIONS

During basic training at the end of each semester in Delhi Police Academy, trainees shall appear in examinations (Indoor & Outdoor) conducted by a Board of Examiners constituted by Director/Joint Director, Delhi Police Academy. The board will comprise of Director/Joint Director as Chairman and 02 Deputy Directors as Members. The Chairman shall nominate the Deputy Director or any other officer to set the question papers and to evaluate them. Final result will be prepared by taking into account marks obtained in each semester.

In case any trainee is sanctioned leave in emergent case by the competent authority before/during examination and trainee is unable to appear in examination, as the case may be, she/he will be allowed to appear in supplementary examination to be conducted.

Trainees securing 50% marks in each of the Indoor & Outdoor subjects will be declared pass. While declaring the result, the board may also consider awarding a maximum of 5% grace marks in only one subject, if a trainee fails in the examinations. There will be supplementary examination for the trainee who fails in any examination. Maximum 02 chances will be given to such trainees to pass in the failed subject. This examination will be conducted within a period of 03 months of declaration of result of each semester or with next batch whichever is earlier. However, only minimum qualifying marks i.e. 50% will be added in such subject(s) in the final result of the trainee, irrespective of the marks secured in such additional chances.

The service of the trainee, who does not pass, despite 02 additional chances, will be terminated under Rule-5 of the CCS (Temporary Services) Rules, 1965. No trainee will pass out from Delhi Police Academy until she/he passes all the examinations. The trainee will be sent to districts for A, B, C & D Courses after passing out from Delhi Police Academy.

XII. HONOUR LIST

The trainees will be eligible for the following awards for obtaining outstanding merit in various subjects at the occasion of the "Passing Out Parade".
